

AICPA Webcast & Infocast Topic Highlights 2010

Employee Benefit Plans Risk Alert

The AICPA's Employee Benefit Plans Strategic Briefing covers all the hot issues currently affecting employee benefit plans. This webcast addresses issues specific to current-year engagements and includes a discussion of, and guidance on, these and other emerging issues.

- Average Attendance: 600
- Audience: CPAs in CPA firms that perform audits of employee benefit plans and senior financial management within organizations with responsibility for overseeing employee benefit plans
- 2010 Dates: April

Not-For-Profit Strategic Briefing

This webcast addresses issues specific to current-year engagements. It includes a discussion and offers guidance on issues including: industry and economic developments affecting audits of NPOs, recent regulatory developments, implications of recently issued accounting and auditing pronouncements in regard to this year's engagement, and significant issues on the horizon for NPOs.

- Average Attendance: 300
- Audience: CPAs in CPA firms that perform audits of not-for-profit organizations and senior financial management within not-for-profit organizations
- 2010 Dates: June

State & Local Government Strategic Briefing

This webcast helps participants understand what is directly relevant to their current year-ends and provides a strategic look at what's important for state and local governments. It reviews recently issued accounting and auditing pronouncements and provides details on industry and economic developments affecting audits of governmental entities, and significant issues on the horizon.

- Average Attendance: 250
- Audience: CPAs in CPA firms that perform audits of state and local governmental entities and senior financial management within state and local governmental entities
- 2010 Dates: June

Compilation & Review Risk Alert

This webcast offers an update on recent practice issues and professional standards affecting compilation and review engagements. Topics include how to: effectively plan and perform your current-year compilation and review engagements; identify issues facing practitioners; identify current accounting and reporting issues; and better understand what's in the SSARS pipeline.

- Average Attendance: 350
- Audience: CPAs in CPA firms who perform compilation and review engagements for clients, mostly smaller firms
- 2010 Dates: November

AICPA Webcast & Infocast Highlights 2010 cont'd

Year-End Audit Risk Alert

This webcast addresses current accounting developments, auditing developments and the regulatory environment. The presenters discuss the current economic and industry environment and their impact on engagements, including what's on the horizon. Auditors currently planning and executing year-end audits find this webcast timely and directly relevant to the current year's engagements.

- Average Attendance: 300
- Audience: CPAs in CPA firms who perform audit engagements for clients, mostly smaller firms
- 2010 Dates: December

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) Quarterly Series

A seismic shift is about to take place within the accounting standards area. International harmonization is approaching and preparers, practitioners, educators and CPAs need to start today to remain ahead of this juggernaut. This series gives participants a multi-step educational process to get them up to speed on all aspects of IFRS implementation.

- Average Attendance: 200
- Audience: CFOs, VPs-finance, controllers and other senior financial executives and their professional staff; CPAs and their staff in firms; accounting educators
- 2010 Dates: March, June, September, December

SEC Quarterly Update Series

This series showcases the profession's leading experts on what's hot at the SEC. From corporate accounting reform legislation and new regulatory initiatives to accounting and reporting requirements and CorpFin activities, these hard-hitting sessions keep CPAs plugged in to what's important.

- Average Attendance: 425
- Audience: Senior financial executives in publicly held companies and auditors who serve publicly held clients
- 2010 Dates: February, June, September, December

CFO Quarterly Roundtable Series

This series is designed to cover a broad array of hot topics developed in conjunction with financial executives around the world to ensure discussion of the most relevant subjects. From financial reporting, budgeting and forecasting, to asset management and operations, the roundtable helps CFOs, treasurers, controllers and other financial executives excel in their demanding roles. This interactive resource delivers leading-edge strategies and tactics in a lively format that encourages discussion about the ideas, practices and methodologies that affect the CFO's job function.

- Average Attendance: 400
- Audience: Senior financial executives in business and industry and their professional advisers (auditors). Secondary audience is general business consultants as well as consultants focused in the area of bankruptcy and workouts
- 2010 Dates: March, June, September, November